

Guillaume Gevrey
Consultant
guillaume.gevrey@liw3.com

Guillaume is a “global nomad” who experienced his first expatriation in the USA at the age of six. Canada, the United Kingdom and Ireland were to follow suit with regular intervals in France where he completed a BA in English Cultural Studies in Lille. He first came to India in 2000, where he was responsible for creating the first exchange program between his French University and Christ College in Bangalore.

Having previous BPO experience, Guillaume was took an active part in the explosion of the outsourcing movement in India. Learning & development, recruitment, operations. Over 5 years, Guillaume worked into all aspects of the BPO industry.

Through his personal and professional experiences, Guillaume gradually became a specialist in intercultural communication and management. In 2006 he was a founding member of SIETAR India (Society for Intercultural Education Training and Research) and has since presented papers regularly at domestic and global SIETAR conferences. In 2004, he also started coaching foreign professionals who were expatriated to India for long term assignments.

Guillaume is widely respected as a cross-cultural consultant and management trainer. He has worked with various organizations in helping them develop the global mindset of their employees and managers through long-term relationships, in-depth needs analysis and customised training solutions.

Some of the companies he has worked with are: Arcelor Mittal, Barclaycard, Hewlett Packard, Siemens, SAP, Dell, IBM, Schneider, Novell, Robert Bosch, Textron ,TransWorks, etc.

Guillaume is a certified practitioner of the Cultural Detective, the Myers Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) Step I and Step II and the Herrmann Brain Dominance Instrument (HBDI).

Achievements

Author “Looking for Work in India” for Expertise in Labour Mobility

(ISBN 90-5896-0293)

Experience

- 9 years training experience in IT, BPO, Engineering and Finance industries
- President of SIETAR India
- Lecturer for Cross Cultural Teamwork & Communication for French b-schools
- Director and Principal Training Consultant at C2C Pvt. Ltd.

Qualifications

- BA English Cultural Studies from Lille Catholic University (France)
- Certified Cultural Detective practitioner
- Certified MBTI® Step I and Step II administrator
- Certified HBDI® administrator