

LIW³
Building a legacy of leadership

Kelvyn Steggles
Managing Consultant
kelvyn.steggles@liw3.com

Kelvyn joined Leading Initiatives in 2002 and brings a wealth of business experience and a keen interest in helping leaders release their full potential. He is experienced in executive coaching, leadership assessment and leadership development, with a particular focus on team building and team performance. Having spent much of his career in UK, he has now become an Australian Citizen.

Kelvyn's track record spans over 20 years in Financial Services and Management Consulting, prior to establishing his own coaching/facilitation/ consulting business. MBA qualified, he has a unique combination of hands-on experience in relationship management, Human Resource management, project delivery, change management and business innovation, together with the ability to maintain the strategic perspective.

He is an experienced facilitator and has proven himself to be highly skilled in team leadership. He has endless energy and is able to draw upon a wide range of management expertise and interpersonal skills, including international experience in Australia, UK, Asia, Africa, USA, N. America & the Caribbean. Kelvyn's UK experience was with Barclays Bank, predominantly with the Bank's credit card division Barclaycard. He held numerous management positions in Human Resources, major projects and IT areas. His final role was as Director of the bank's Emerging Markets Group where he had responsibility for the innovative exploitation of emerging technologies, communications channels and markets to create new commercial opportunities for the Bank, and he also ran the Group's Human Resource function.

After a short spell with Barclays in the Caribbean where he managed a new product development & a strategic review project, Kelvyn secured a position with PA Consulting Group in Sydney and relocated to Australia. At PA, he was a Principal Consultant and operated in the retail financial services sector running projects in Australia and Hong Kong. Kelvyn has changed his career to focus on helping people develop their potential and established his own coaching / facilitation / consulting business where he assists leaders with clarifying their vision, putting momentum in to strategies and guiding the transition towards achieving their aims. Recent assignments have been delivered across the Asia Pacific region and in Africa. With distance running a lifelong passion, and 14 marathons under his belt, Kelvyn has huge reservoirs of energy, determination and tenacity which he brings to everything he does in life.

Mini bio

- Kelvyn specialises in team building and team performance. Kelvyn's career has included international roles in financial services and management consulting.

Qualifications

- MBA
- Diploma in Management
- Accredited Coach