

LIW³
Building a legacy
of leadership

Vinay Kumar
Consultant
vinay.kumar@liw3.com

Vinay, after spending a short time in International banking, moved to training and development. Over the past decade Vinay has worked in the US, the Middle East and Asia. Vinay is widely respected as a cross-cultural consultant and a research and management trainer. He has worked with various organisations in creating efficiencies across global teams through training and development, consulting, and facilitation efforts.

He has delivered programs across Asia Pacific, Europe, North and Central America. He has delivered programs in over 20 countries.

He has also presented at various conferences and has presented at the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) HR conference in Bangalore in 2006, International Association of Facilitators conference in Malaysia (IAF), and at SIETAR conferences (Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research) in the US and India. He has also been active in the professional industry groups and is the former regional president of the South India Council of the Indo-American Chamber of Commerce (IACC) and on the National Education Committee of the IACC and the HR Forum of the American Chamber of Commerce (Amcham).

Some of the companies he has worked with are:

GE, GM, Hewlett Packard, Mercedes-Benz, NetApp, NCR, Oracle, SAP, Timken Engineering, Visa.

Mini bio

Vinay's achievements include:

- 2006-07: SIC President, IACC
- 2007 – Current: SIETAR India Executive Director

Experience & Qualifications for Vinay:

- Worked in the US, the Middle East and Asia
- Cross-cultural consultant and research and management trainer
- Work experience in the Banking, Education, and Consulting industries
- MBA degree from the United States